
JUDICIAL PROFILE

Linda Miles was appointed to the Superior Court in December 2001. She is currently assigned to the Juvenile Court Department. She attended Arizona State University where she received her bachelor's degree, cum laude, in 1978 and her law degree in 1982. Following graduation, she worked as a paralegal for the law firm of Streich, Lang, Weeks & Cardon. After graduation, she joined the law firm of Evans, Kitchel & Jenckes where she became a partner practicing in the areas of labor and employment law. From 1989 to 1994, she continued her labor and employment law practice with the firm of Ryley, Carlock & Applewhite. In 1994, she was appointed as an administrative law judge with the Industrial Commission of Arizona. In October 1995, she was appointed as a Commissioner of the Superior Court. As a Commissioner, she served in the Family Court, Civil, Tax and Special Assignment Departments.

Judge Miles has been an active member of Soroptimist International of Phoenix, Inc. for 10 years. She also has been a member of the Sandra Day O'Connor Inn of Court and the Board of Directors of the Arizona Friends of Foster Children Foundation for many years. She has participated in the Kids in Court program and the Courthouse Experience program, and presently serves as the Chair of the Bench/Bar Committee of the Maricopa County Bar Association.
